O , 2021-01-26 08:56:23

ooh what! < 3

Q , 2021-01-26 08:56:36

wait no i misread!

O , 2021-01-26 08:56:56

Over the years, however, we designed increasingly complex social actions. This culminated with activities like chess and sparring, complex, multi-stage activities that tie together several social actions.

O , 2021-01-26 08:57:01

yeah that $\%#39;s why they $\%#39;re fun!

O , 2021-01-26 08:57:38

ok letter writing decent replacement!

O , 2021-01-26 08:58:16

although i really do wish there were a quiz or wario-ware style minigame element to these activities

O , 2021-01-26 08:58:33

e.g. speling, grammar, and vocab quiz for letter writing that determines quality of letter!

Q , 2021-01-26 08:59:10

rhythm game for everything else!

O ...., 2021-01-26 08:59:51

at first i was like ooh they're adding more chess!

G, 2021-01-26 09:00:04

Yeah chess going away forever!

Q , 2021-01-26 09:01:22

nooo ok those were all so fun too with the multi-part nature!

G, 2021-01-26 09:02:37

Yeah but just think of all the great letters you can send me!

yeah into that!

 $\mathbf{E}$ , 2021-01-26 15:03:00

Like ofc need irreplaceable sophisticated engineers to build our code, couldn't just copy and paste from Stack Exchange!

E , 2021-01-26 15:03:37

But money spent on legal professionals of same caliber totally wasted, obvs they're not really doing anything so can just replace with some garbage template!

O, 2021-01-26 15:18:57

xiaomi, answering kevin klein questions i've already answered 3+ times over the past year...all the important stuff!

T , 2021-01-26 15:19:06

who's the VP?

E G, 2021-01-26 15:19:12

OK so I haven't been fully looped in either since properly Mike Z's business, but obvs he's not going to reach out to your team since he doesn't even know what's happening!

T O , 2021-01-26 15:19:17

feel like i can talk sense into most VPs!

Feel like it's a Shie thing mostly?

E G , 2021-01-26 15:20:11

So as far as I can read it (and obviously I only have Ads side of the story!) it's an issue grown out of that new policy Play wanted Ads to instate a few months ago...

E G, 2021-01-26 15:21:01

Play originally wanted but then settled for reasonable intermediate policy basically saying if you're running ads that take you to download from 3P store, have to disclose!

E , 2021-01-26 15:21:03

Which p good!

E , 2021-01-26 15:21:11

And I think the teams agreed on

E G, 2021-01-26 15:21:25

(since obviously really burdensome to

E G , 2021-01-26 15:22:03

But now apparently Play escalating because 1) mad at a second and a second and 2) also mad that Google Ads can

E G, 2021-01-26 15:23:42

So ads enforcement folks all spun up in a tizzy like 1) is unreasonable and not what we agreed to, and 2) literally impossible!

T O, 2021-01-26 15:25:07

ugh so weird! shie's escalating?

E G, 2021-01-26 15:25:19

So all I have is an email thread where they looped me in for fake privilege, but says:

O, 2021-01-26 15:25:33

suzanne maybe?

E G, 2021-01-26 15:25:36

Given our aggressive set of 2021 OKRs that we just finalized and the extent to which our team is over-stretched and putting our team health at risk, it is unreasonable for the Play team to ask us to drop everything based on only a 30 minute meeting called out of the blue at the VP level. This is especially true considering that we have an existing agreement that Shie LGTM'd for reactive.

E , 2021-01-26 15:25:42

So seems like there was VP meeting yesterday?

E G, 2021-01-26 15:26:00

Hi all - as I've discussed with some of you, we'd like to create a new role for Lopa to oversee our global ads policy efforts. This is akin to the role previously held by Cesar, but with a greater focus on coordination and a much smaller focus on day-to-day, substantive peounsel work. Here's the proposal in a nutshell:  Lopa would oversee the work by our legal assistants (Ree Ree and Virginia), our lawyer-on-call rotation (as it relates to ads policy only), and the assistance they receive from Cesar and Amir on a weekly basis. Escalations would go to Lopa instead of me.
Str>Alice would continue to run point on EU self-regulatory matters (e.g., Committee on Advertising Practice, IAB, WFA, etc.), as well as selected inquiries and negotiations with UK authorities (e.g., UK FCA, ASA). Lopa would work with Alice to help navigate escalations with Product/Eng (e.g., REDACTED - PRIVILEGE >Lopa would not be involved with Transparency for All Ads (TfAA), Election/Issue ads, PubQual, or AdSpam. hr>For all other ads policy/APaS issues not currently handled by Rochelle, Alea, Alice, or David, Lopa would be the primary pounsel point-of-contact for Competition Counsel, Regional Counsel, Trademark Counsel, and Product/Eng (Mike Schulman, Scott Spencer, and John Canfield). Lopa would stack-rank all inbound requests, handle some of them herself, direct some of them to me (to assign to other peounsel on my team), and direct the remainder to our legal assistants and lawyer-on-call rotation. br>Lopa also would attend the policy teams &#39; weekly DMG with execs. Str>Hopefully this all makes sense, and even more hopefully it will alleviate some of the pain that resulted from pulling Cesar off of ads policy last year. Thoughts? Questions? Lemme know. :)  br>  Mike

[Refresher] GVP 1.0 Context: In 2019, Google Play's growth and business model faced risk due to increasing competitive intensity & the emerging app store "tax" meme

Competitors Aggressively Pursuing Gaming

"App Store Tax" Meme Emerging

Apple and Google Face Growing Revolt Over App Store 'Tax'

Opinion: Google's 30% cut of Play Store app sales is nothing short of highway robbery

Risk: Top Developer Churn from Play

 Play margin loss: $840M likely margin exposure in 2022 (cumulative ~$2 Bn+ in 2019-2022) Opportunity: Deepen relationships with top developers and grow cross-Google product adoption

Discussion

Summary

GVP 1.0 is working, has helped mitigate off-Play distribution risk and had deepened overall developer partnership with Google

Several major GVP gives expire in 2020 EOY (except for GCP) and developers are actively asking for extensions.

GVP 2.0 builds on the successes of 1.0, actively addresses gaps, and shifts goals from off-Play risk to joint growth. Extends term to three years to deepen partnerships.

Open questions

Project Runway - are there concerns about extending term to three years given Project Runway plans?

AVP - other PAs are getting wary of xPA deals -Cloud as AVP deals could have larger contra impact on them. Ads due to negative (albeit small) ROI. Is this still the right approach?

3	02/04/2021 03:02:55	This is too vague I'm not sure what you're trying to convey do you mean: Utilize GVP partnership to address continuing top developer concerns
7	02/04/2021 03:04:32	Something like this also leads nicely into the next slide that intros new developers
4	02/04/2021 03:17:42	@@google.com Took a stab at this slide. Reshuffled/reorganized a bit. We can discuss tomorrow.

5	02/04/2021 03:25:13	I'm being extra careful with wording here (it's risk)
6	02/04/2021 03:25:13	But also Divya's wording is pretty clever. As we want to retain Developers using our services aka billing platform.
1	02/04/2021 17:46:39	How come Ads has great margins but negative ROI
1	02/04/2021 17:46:39	They reevaluated earlier breakeven was calculated as but has been revised to (breakeven is now defined at in credits). Also, the ROI is based on "incremental" growth minus cost of credits, so while margins overall are great, cost of credits largely balances out incremental growth

6	EXAMINATION
7	BY MS. MOSKOWITZ:
8	Q. Good morning, Mr. Koh. As you heard, my
9	name is Lauren Moskowitz, and I represent Epic
10	Games, and I'll be starting the questioning this
11	morning.
12	Thank you for being here.
13	Can you just please state your full name
14	again for the record.
15	A. My name is Lawrence Koh.
16	Q. And what is your address?
17	A. I currently reside do you want the full
18	address?
19	Q. You can tell me the the city and state.
20	A. City, state, okay. Yeah, I currently
21	reside in
22	Q. And where are you located at the moment?
23	A. I'm in downtown San Francisco, California.
24	Q. You are at your counsel's offices?
25	A. That is correct.

	Page 113
1	Q Purnima Kochikar, does did what
2	was your understanding as to what that would refer
3	to?
4	MR. BRADSHAW: Object to the form.
5	THE WITNESS: Oh, so I I've used it
6	under that context as I it's like, hey, I'm just
7	going to just let I've pinged Purnima meant
8	and and I gave ping I I reached out, sent
9	a message, and provided some notification.
10	BY MS. MOSKOWITZ:
11	Q. So you're not you don't know whether
12	that generally referred to an instant message as
13	opposed to an e-mail?
14	A. I feel like I used it probably
15	interchangeably, just opening some communication
16	stream is how I used it.
17	Q. And in terms of your use of well, let
18	me withdrawn.
19	If if I use instant messages to
20	describe GChat or Google Hangouts, is that
21	consistent with your understanding as to what
22	those platforms are?
23	A. Yes.
24	Q. And in terms of your use of instant
25	messaging through those platforms, how frequently

	Page 114
1	would you describe your use of of instant
2	messages; daily, less frequently? Can you give me
3	a sense of how often you used instant messaging
4	while at Google?
5	MR. BRADSHAW: Object to the form.
6	THE WITNESS: Everyone at Google used
7	it at least on my team, used it on a daily
8	basis.
9	BY MS. MOSKOWITZ:
10	Q. Are you aware of an option within that
11	Google Chat GChat or Google Hangouts platform
12	that allows you to preserve your message history
13	on that platform?
14	A. Yes, I am.
15	Q. Did you ever take advantage of that option
16	and preserve your message history on those
17	platforms?
18	A. I don't recall exactly what I set it to,
19	but I was aware of the option to do that.
20	Q. So you just don't recall, one way or the
21	other, which which box you checked, so to
22	speak?
23	A. That is correct.
24	Q. Do you recall ever copying and pasting any
25	of your chat back and forth for purposes of

	Page 169
1	Q. The the specific discussion about that
2	Android-to-iOS churn relates to user trust
3	erosion.
4	Do you see that?
5	A. Yes, I do.
6	Q. And so, with respect to what's being
7	described there, there is a reference to security
8	and privacy risks.
9	Do you see that?
10	A. Yes, I do.
11	Q. And that's a comparison of Android to iOS,
12	vis-à-vis security and privacy; right?
13	MR. BRADSHAW: Object to the form.
14	THE WITNESS: That that is correct.
15	BY MS. MOSKOWITZ:
16	Q. So in terms of Project Hug as presented to 17	the business council, what Google was what the
18	group was presenting in this slide is that up to
19	over of revenue was at risk over the
20	course of 2019 to 2022 if developers moved to
21	alternative Android app distribution platforms
22	other than Google Play; correct?
23	A. That is correct.
24	Q. Please turn I'm just going to skip
25	ahead to slide '2830, which should be about five

	Page 299
1	agitation from the industry." Right?
2	A. Yes, I do see that.
3	Q. And the second objective was, after they
4	choose Play, you can talk about some other
5	Hug-related obligations that you would try to
6	obtain from Riot; right?
7	A. Yes, that is correct.
8	Q. And so, you go on to say that you thought
9	that Google or the finance folks were not
10	taking into consideration the investment that was
11	needed to accomplish objective number 1; right?
12	A. Yes, that is what I said.
13	Q. And your view was that objective number 1,
14	making sure Riot did not launch their own Android
15	app store, that Google was paying a higher premium
16	in the first year as Riot builds up their
17	business, and that that was an investment that was
18	well money well spent?
19	MR. BRADSHAW: Object to the form.
20	THE WITNESS: Yes, that is correct.
21	BY MS. MOSKOWITZ:
22	Q. So in terms of the the overall Hug
23	feel, Google was and from your perspective,
24	Google was focused properly on stopping Riot from
25	competing within alternative Android app store?

3	Q. And so you then say, "If Top Partner

6	A. Yes.
7	Q. There is the e-mail then

10	continues. Do you see that?
11	A. Yes.
12	Q. FB is Facebook?
13	A. Yes, it is.
L 4	Q. And it said, "These are not folks
15	like Amazon, Samsung, Twitter, FB, or Apple
16	where we hugely compete and hugely cooperate
17	with them." Do you see that?
18	A. I do.
19	Q. What did you mean by "hugely compete
20	and hugely cooperate" with respect to those
21	companies?
22	MR. POMERANTZ: Object to form.
23	A. By hugely compete, I think I'm
2 4	referencing the fact that we are all working on
25	developing services and products that users

Page 75 1 KOLOTOUROS - HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL 2 derive value from, and on cooperate, there are 3 commercial constructs or contracts in place with them that are symbolic of close 4 5 cooperation and those two -- those two environments coexisted and made the 6 7 partnerships complex. 8 And how did Google and Apple hugely Ο. 9 cooperate? 10 I believe we have a revenue share 11 deal with them. 12 And that refers to revenue share on Q. 13 Google search? 14 Yes, but it's -- I -- it's worth 15 noting, I'm not very close to the Apple 16 engagement or relationship at all, so that's 17 just a guess on my part. 18 Does Ms. Braddi manage Google's Q. 19 relationship with Apple? 20 I don't know who the day-to-day Α. 21 person responsible for the Apple relationship 22 is currently. 23 Is Ms. Braddi involved in overseeing 0. 24 the relationship between Google and Apple? 25 She might be but I don't know who Α.

Page 105 1 KOLOTOUROS - HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL 2 Q. So, for all of those OEMs and all those devise, there is 3 correct? 6 Α. To the extent they like to yes, we do express that they come 8 as a 9 Ο. Not to the extent that they to the extent that they opt to use 11 even a single Google app or Googles service, 12 they must correct? 14 Α. Yes. 15 So that Q. for 16 those OEMs that have chosen to use a single app 17 or service by Google, correct? 18 Α. Well, the 19 The OEM is free to that it thinks are as 21 good or better than what the and create the discoverability and 23 promotional elements for those services that it 24 thinks makes the most sense. 25 Q. But if they do that, they don't get

Page 218 1 KOLOTOUROS - HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL 2 closer to Google." Do you see that? 3 I do. Α. 4 And one of his ideas is to work with 5 those OEMs to have through rev share agreements as 7 possibly one solution, right? That's a -- that appears to be what 8 Α. 9 he says. 10 He says that doing that would solve 11 a couple of issues, one of which he says would 12 help quote, "helps stem the tide of emerging 13 app stores," end quote. Do you see that? 14 Α. I do. 15 So you respond and you say that that 16 last paragraph that I just referred to was the 17 key. Do you see that? Do you see that? 18 Α. I do see that, yes. I'm just 19 reading what I wrote. 20 Q. Okay? 21 Α. Okay. 22 Q. So you said that Mr. Raja's last paragraph was the key? 23 24 Α. Yes, I did write that. 25 Q. The e-mail goes on to discuss that

1	KOLOTOUROS - HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL
2	Q. And exposure means risk of loss,
3	correct?
4	A. Risk of loss?
5	Q. Yes.
6	A. Loss of what?
7	Q. Money.
8	A. I'm trying to
9	Q. Higher exposure of Search and Play
10	revenue that means risk of loss of Search and
11	Play revenue, correct?
12	A. Yes.
13	Q. And the reason pardon me, go
14	ahead.
15	A. I think that's fair, yes.
16	Q. And the reason for that in the
17	bullet right below was a reference to Chinese
18	OEMs and Samsung quote "Actively investing in
19	creating their own and it continues. Do you see that?
21	A. I do.
22	Q. So, Chinese OEMs and Samsung were
23	actively investing in creating their own
24	that could be
25	competing with the grant of apps and

	Page 245

3	A. Correct.
4	Q. And if those were to be preinstalled on
6	OEM devices in lieu of the, Google
7	would be not making any money off of those
8	devices, correct?
9	A. I think this just speaks to the fact
10	that Chinese OEMs and Samsung were doing
11	exactly what the slide said, which is to make
13	their devices better.
14	Q. And to compete with
16	A. I don't know what precisely what the
L 7 	exact
	is.
19	Q. But What is being communicated here
20	though because it's talking about a risk to
21	Google's Play and Search revenue is that those
22	Chinese OEMs and Samsung were going to be
23	that were actively investing in creating a
2 4
	correct?

Page 250 1 KOLOTOUROS - HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL 2 summarizes the asked the business council; is 3 that right? 4 Α. Yes. 5 And the idea here is that Google 6 asked -- the Google team asked the business 7 council for permission to send in 8 2020 which would grow to 4.5 billion in 2023; 9 is that right? 10 Yes, that's what the slide says. 11 And all of that money would take the 0. 12 form of revenue share both from Google Search 13 and Google Play for devices enrolled, correct? 14 Α. I believe that is correct, yes. 15 Q. And it says here that "Google would 16 pay revenue share to secure platform 17 protections for Search and Play and critical 18 acts protections on more devices." Do you see 19 that? 20 Yes. Α. 21 So this revenue share that was being 22 requested would secure protection for Google 23 Play, correct? 24 Α. It would secure platform defaults 25 for Search and device by device -- on a device

Page 290 KOLOTOUROS - HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Chinese OEMs that had alternative app stores were being contemplated to receive Google Play rev share than the OEMs that did not have those alternative app stores, correct? Jess went in on her though!

e @google.com 2022-03-19T00:14:43.407Z

The candidate had a rough understanding of the landscape of possible legal issues. However, the candidate could not provide and resisted pushes towards systematically breaking down, quantifying, prioritizing, and mitigating specific legal issues, rather falling back on generalities or statements that expertise should be engaged. The candidate had no apparent awareness of the product or engineering stakeholders or the product launch process within a tech company. The candidate's experiential narratives were about local government client management in the tax and public finance sector and had no clear application to the product counsel role or to the realities of working inside a tech company.

like issue all over the place!

e @google.com 2022-03-21T19:56:00.898Z

Like if she had same job as her colleagues at FB then why should she be ACC and they're CC just because she graduated from law school a year later

e @google.com 2022-03-21T19:56:09.102Z

And then she's like 2-3 years behind them here?

e @google.com 2022-03-21T19:56:36.331Z

And then she wants her experience to count more because already was an ads product counsel at FB when other people here came from firms or have less experience...

@google.com 2022-03-21T19:56:57.462Z

But was like that's what gives you edge in getting hired, but doesn't count for leveling once here...

@google.com 2022-03-21T19:57:01.581Z

ok that's a lot to deal with!

e @google.com 2022-03-21T19:57:12.471Z

but don't know all the details!

@google.com 2022-03-21T19:58:08.027Z

(also do feel like people overrate worth of level, but that's easy to say and only knowable once you're actually here like being senior counsel not this amazing thing)

@google.com 2022-03-21T19:58:17.016Z

oh no!

@google.com 2022-03-21T19:59:09.370Z

@google.com 2922-03-21719:59:45.7087 Document 621-9 Filed 09/28/23 Page 168 of 235

And was like look ACC is correct level, and can't really hire at other level!

e @google.com 2022-03-21T20:00:03.125Z

Because would be equity concerns for other people on team, like can't hire you in at higher level than people on team with more experience.

e @google.com 2022-03-21T20:00:23.920Z

But she's like should only compare me to London prounsel, Abby hired at 3 years of experience and promoted to CC at 5?

@google.com 2022-03-21T20:00:34.123Z

And was like yes, on commercial team...but also that's not r a contradiction?

@google.com 2022-03-21T20:00:54.757Z

Like yes, people will get hired in with less experience since you're on the border between levels, that doesn't mean we can never hire someone with less experience than you?

@google.com 2022-03-21T20:01:18.563Z

hahaha omg ok that's REALLY tough when person like let me find this one very specific example arguing in my favor and it's like ok we can just find example on other end of someone with way more experience at ACC? doesn't seem like great way to resolve?

@google.com 2022-03-21T20:01:43.059Z

yeah right? like argument doesn't seem v principled!

@google.com 2022-03-21T20:03:03.401Z

managing london so tricky though i guess going to be more and more normal with people moving all over the place!

And there was this one fabric I wanted but they were like pick up to 15 so was like OK will pick 15 I guess, can't hurt!

e @google.com 2022-03-21T21:48:00.359Z

So swatches arrive and it's 12 of them!

@google.com 2022-03-21T21:48:11.033Z

And of 3 missing, 1 is the one I actually want!

e @google.com 2022-03-21T21:48:15.418Z

So was like uhhhh OK not r helpful!

@google.com 2022-03-21T21:48:27.883Z

And then like two weeks later get a weird anonymous white mailer and am like hmm...

@google.com 2022-03-21T21:48:28.367Z

hahaha terrible!

e @google.com 2022-03-21T21:48:31.925Z

wait what?

@google.com 2022-03-21T21:48:46.297Z

(still not the one I want)

@google.com 2022-03-21T21:48:58.218Z

And then another week later, get another envelope!

@google.com 2022-03-21T21:48:59.394Z

sketchy!

@google.com 2022-03-21T21:49:02.602Z

And inside is ONE MORE SWATCH

@google.com 2022-03-21T21:49:08.592Z

So now I have 14/15 swatches!

And obviously the one missing swatch is the blue velvet one I actually wanted!!

Literally the only swatch I wanted to see!

@google.com 2022-03-21T21:49:25.573Z

and not the one you want--ofc!

@google.com 2022-03-21T21:49:34.358Z

Our approach to feed allergens is changing! Document 621-9 Filed 09/28/23 Page 180 of 235 What's changing?

We currently use the same list of 19 food allergens, intolerances and sensitivities on our menus globally. Moving forward, we will only list the food allergens regulated in each country in the "Contains" section of menus, which will provide an experience that's more consistent with food choices outside the office.

Where to learn more

Our conversation yesterday reminded me of an essay we had to write in Philosophy in High School. The title was from Simone De Beauvoir and I found it 'translated' in English as "Morality resides in the painfulness of an indefinite questioning". It is from her essay about "Pour un morale de l'ambiguite." I absolutely don't remember what I wrote, but I do remember the many discussions we had in class about the topic. Some much more contentious than the ones we had yesterday. I don't even remember the grade I got. As Clement will attest, French grading is rough ("perfection is only of the realm of the gods") so I might not even have gotten a passing grade!

Many of you asked about Swag and Celebration. After much discussion on this, we've decided that given the circumstances, and despite this amazing work and achievement, we don't think celebration is really the appropriate thing here given the context of this action. Many felt that celebrating this with food or swag could be interpreted as a lack of respect for the harm caused by real world situation that has forced our action. So in the spirit of marking this achievement, but also to show respect for those whose lives have been directly impacted by the conflict, we're encouraging individuals to make a contribution to the google.org giving campaign if they so choose.
